Getting medical devices across the Canadian border is one thing; getting them to their final destination is another.

As the largest integrated parcel and freight delivery company in Canada, Purolator has the geographic reach to provide unsurpassed service to the largest metropolitan markets while also reaching the most rural locations. By partnering with Purolator, you are able to leverage a single transportation vendor to ensure fulfillment no matter the end delivery—from a hospital in Toronto to a university medical research facility in Nova Scotia or a lab in the Northwest Territories. We deliver Canada.
